ADVANCED CHEMICAL SOLUTIONS LLC

News – June, 2013

[New Website Launched]

Advanced Chemical Solutions LLC, is launching a new website in June of 2013. The new website will be hosted on a new Windows Server.

The goal of the new website is to provide an improved overall experience for those who visit the site and help existing and future customers find information faster.

The hope is that during the transition there will be little to no interruption in access to the website.
